

Palomar's Suite of Platform-Based Fractional Technologies

Palomar LUX2940™ FRACTIONAL LASER HANDPIECE

A sophisticated fractional laser that allows you to tailor the depth of ablation and the amount of thermal effect, the Lux2940™ satisfies your patient's needs for superior results with reduced downtime.

Photo: Khalil Khatri, MD

Palomar LUX1540™ FRACTIONAL LASER HANDPIECE

The Lux1540's array of high-energy laser micro-beams stimulate non-ablative skin resurfacing with great efficacy and minimal downtime.

Photo: Dwight Scarborough, MD

Palomar LUX1440™ FRACTIONAL LASER HANDPIECE

The quick-treatment Lux1440™ features fractional beams that reduce dyschromia, for a fresher, clearer skin appearance with minimal downtime.

*Pending FDA Clearance

Photo: Palomar

Palomar LUXDEEPIR™ FRACTIONAL INFRARED HANDPIECE

The LuxDeepIR™ creates fractional columns of deep heating in the dermis, reducing skin laxity on the neck, abdomen, and legs with no downtime – providing efficacious results for “on the go” patients.

Photo: Christine Dierickx, MD

The StarLux® 500 Laser and Pulsed Light System offers an unparalleled variety of aesthetic treatments including fractional skin resurfacing, fractional skin tightening, permanent hair reduction, photofacials for pigmented and vascular lesions, leg vein clearance, acne treatment, and more. With fractional technology, higher power, and built-in cooling, the StarLux 500 delivers faster treatments, higher efficacy and superior safety and comfort.